

SPEECH - LANGUAGE THERAPY

Speech and Language Pathology/Therapy Department.

Deals with:

- Adults and Children who have speech and language difficulties.
- Patients are dealt individually and group therapies are also run.
- Parents and caregivers' counseling and guidance will be assured. They would be made part of the session when required.
- We are working as a team; we involve psychologist, psychiatrist, physiotherapist, occupational therapist, ENT/audiologist and dentistry, whenever and wherever it is required.

Assessment and therapies for:

1. Stroke patients having difficulties in swallowing, speaking, understanding and oral musculature weakness.
2. Infants with feeding difficulties
3. Cleft palate.
4. Voice disorders.
5. Hearing impairment.
6. Stammering.
7. Articulator and phonological disorders.
8. Receptive and expressive disorders.
9. Motor speech disorders.
10. ADHD/ Autism.
11. Learning difficulties.

Candidates for speech and language services are:

1. A person who had stroke and is unable to speak at all or has slurred speech that is unintelligible. The patient is having swallowing difficulties, cough on liquids, facial paralysis, disorientation, lack of understanding and the patient struggles for words while speaking.

2. Voice disorders caused due to stress and fatigue. Voice misuse and abuse. Laryngitis and head and neck surgeries. People who are experiencing aphonia and dysphoinia.
3. Children who cannot hear right from the birth or hearing loss caused due to ear infections and multiple other causes.

4. Adults and children who have problem speaking clearly and cannot speak fluently. People who experience pauses and breaks in their speech.

5. People who are unable to pronounce words clearly. Who are missing out words in their speech or are unable to say certain words e.g. tat for cat, tun for sun, ool for school.

6. Those people whose understanding is not age appropriate, do not understand and are unable to follow commands. Children who do not have eye contact or least eye contact, and have less attention span etc.
7. People who have drooling, retarded tongue movements, incomplete lip and eye closure, weak oral musculature and half side of the face affected.
8. Attention deficit children, hyperactive, having echolalia, least speech, least recognition of relations and things, play alone, repetitive behavior and live in a world of their own.

9. People who have learning difficulties, difficulties with writing, feel difficulty in math and similar issues.
10. Children and adults with sensory issues are also dealt with the help of an O.T.

Appointments and walk-ins all are encouraged and entertained !!

These services are provided by:

Speech and language pathologist/therapist

Amina Imran

mob. no. 0323-5066950

Days: Monday to Saturday

Timings: 10:00 am to 3:30 pm.